The Indirect Claims.

ARBITRATORS IN GENEVA.

NEW SPANISH MINISTRY.

GREAT BRITAIN.

SAN JUAN BOUNDARY AND FISHERY QUESTIONS.

LONDON, June 14.—In the House of Commons this afternoon, Gregory gave notice that he should question the Government as to the effect the postponement of the arbitration will have on the settlement of the San Juan boundary and fishery questions and on the Canadian loan.

Gladstone replied to an interrogatory from Horsman that the papers concerning the recent negotiations with the United States would include everything except Stafford Northcote's declaration as to the responsibility of the British Commissioners.

THE INDIRECT CLAIMS.

Horsman wanted to know whether the records of the Joint High Commissioners would contain any minutes with regard to indirect claims, or show whether the question of these claims was reached at all; also, whether they would prove that the withdrawal of said claims only rested on an understanding between the commissioners.

Gladstone required notice of the question before giving it a full answer, but would state that no communication had passed between the commissioners and her Majesty's Government showing that the exclusion of indirect claims rested on an understanding.

Corrance asked if Her Majesty's Government intended to proceed with the arbitration on matters which had no relation with the Alabama claims, Fenian raids, fisheries or Canadian matters.

For the purpose of obtaining the floor, Corrance made a motion to adjourn. He criticised the Government, charging it with neglecting the Canadas, and exacting their assent to the treaty of Washington under duress.

Gladstone protested against a portion of the charges. He claimed that his answers were misunderstood. He had said that a postponement of the arbitration would not affect the treaty, but the defect of one of its provisions might, as when one of the wheels of a carriage failed, all failed.

In reply to Viscount Bury's inquiry of last night, Gladstone promised that all the papers would be laid before the House to-night.

It is reported that their first measure will be the appointment of General Don Baldomero Espartero as Generalissimo of the Army of the North. Don Puig Zorilla was at first appointed to the Ministry of Interior, and Senor Rios to the Ministry of Justice. Gutzot, the leader of the orthodox party, maintained the authority of the Scriptures, while Rev. M. The Liberals, after mourning at the action of the orthodox majority, withdrew from the Synod.

OTTAWA, CAN., June 14.—To-day Lord Leagon closed the last session of the present Canadian Parliament with the usual formalities.* In his speech he said the adoption of the article to the treaty of Washington which relates to Canadian interests shows a determination of the members to share the fortunes of England. He spoke in most favorable terms of the project toward a railroad to the Pacific, approved heartily of the outlay sanctioned for the improvement of the St. Lawrence and auxiliary canals, and congratulated the members on the prosperous condition of the revenue, and on having been enabled to diminish the burdens of the people by repealing the duties on tea and coffee. He concluded with thanks for the joint address with which he had been honored on the eve of the session, and expressed a hope that the good understanding which prevails between Canada and the mother country may be constant and unimpaired for generations yet to come.

SWITZERLAND.

NEW YORK.

The Labor Revolution.

DISTURBANCES THREATENED.

Disappearance of Gould.

NEW YORK, June 14, 1872.

THE LABOR REVOLUTION.

The strikers to-day threatened the new hands at work in the machine shops of the New York, New Haven and Hudson River Railroads. The police are in readiness to quell a disturbance.

Two thousand machinists, iron mongers and boiler-makers struck yesterday in Brooklyn. They have struck for eight hours, with the same pay as formerly given for ten. The foundries and large establishments refuse compliance with the demand. In many instances bodies of men visited the establishments and forced the men to strike. In one instance the result of the strike has been that a steamer was taken from Brooklyn to Rhode Island to have her iron work finished. It is also stated that one firm of this city sent orders to Scotland for fifty small steam engines, instead of giving the order here, for fear the strikers will interfere with the prompt performance of the contract.

It is reported that the Grand Jury indicted one of the prominent leaders of the eight hour strike.

Several painters and three laborers, all strikers, were arrested for threatening violence to workmen who refused to join them.

About seven-eighths of Steinway's workmen have resumed work, leaving only sixty ring leaders at that factory still on a strike. It is stated that the striking piano workmen held a secret meeting at the Eight Hour League rooms this afternoon, and voted to assemble at five o'clock in the morning at Steinway's factory and prevent the workmen from resuming their labors there to-morrow. They were promised the co-operation of other organizations.

Through the indiscretion of one of their number, a reporter learned the fact, and the police will be on hand to quell any such demonstration. These men are said to feel very desperate at the apparent failure of their strike. The same meeting voted to send a committee, in company with one from the polishers and varnishers, to Boston, to urge the workmen there to strike.

The strike of the furniture men is ended, the men all returning to work. A carefully prepared table in the Commercial Advertiser shows that there are 6,588 men employed in the furniture business. Of these 4,674 are now at work at ten hours per day, 624 working at eight hours, and 1,218 are on a strike. Of the 624 now working eight hours, nearly all will be discharged next week, they only being employed to enable contracts to be filled.

A delegate from the cabinet makers in Boston reports that here the trade will strike in that city on the 1st of July.

It is stated to-night that commissioners left here this afternoon for Boston, Hartford, Providence, and all other eastern cities, as well as for Baltimore and Philadelphia, to organize strikes among the piano makers and other trades, the object being to have strikes in other parts of the country to help the successful issue of the strikes here.

The workmen in Weicher's sugar refinery, Jersey City, numbering five hundred, struck today for advanced wages.

CRIMINALITIES.

Justus Dunn, convicted of manslaughter in the fourth degree for killing Samuel Colwurt, a keeper in the House of Refuge, was to-day sentenced to one year's imprisonment in the State prison—the lowest penalty admitted by law.

The jury in the case of Andre, who shot his wife, returned a verdict against the prisoner to-day, who was committed.

Early this morning in a saloon John Miller attempted to behead Wm. Maitland with a butcher knife, inflicting a dangerous wound. Dr. Brady, in defending Maitland, so badly beat Miller that the latter will die. Brady was arrested.

The coroner's jury, in the case of Augustus Brown, found a verdict against John Smith and James Pully. Brown was killed while defending hif wife against the insults of ruffians.

DESTRUCTIVE TORNADO.

A number of trees in the squares and in Central Park were torn up by the tornado this afternoon. Several persons in the Battery lost sails, and had their sails torn to tatters in Brooklyn. A partially finished three story brick house on Broadway was blown down, and George Brown killed and three other workmen seriously injured. Some of the telegraph poles were and the roofs of three houses on West street were blown off. Mary Cullen, ten years of age, was blown off the dock at the foot of Pacific street and drowned.

ONE SIXTEENTH OF GOLD.

The complaint against Jay Gould, based on charges of immense frauds, has not yet been filed in the Common Pleas Court, where the case will be tried. A rumor prevailed this afternoon that Gould, fearful of the consequences of these prospected suits, has fled. He could not be found this afternoon, and a warrant for his arrest will probably be put in the hands of the Sheriff to-morrow.

MASSACHUSETTS.

Y. M. C. A. Convention.

LOWELL, MASS., June 14.—At the Thursday evening session of the Young Men's Christian Association, fraternal addresses were delivered by Rev. Dr. Banks, of Edinburgh, and Professor Milligan, of Aberdeen, Scotland. Rev. Jno. Marshall Lang also delivered an address. The topic presented was the temptations of young men. The speakers were Hon. C. Brainard of New York, Joseph Anderson of Waterbury, Connecticut, Rev. J. G. Joyce of Philadelphia, and H. F. Floyd of Cincinnati. Mr. Bishop, of New Jersey, spoke in favor of opening the public libraries on the Sabbath, and the suppression of liquor selling, houses of bad fame, and gambling houses.

In the Y. M. C. A. Convention this morning a resolution was offered by Rev. T. A. Kernley, of Pennsylvania, to the following effect: "That this International Y. M. C. A. Convention pledges itself to resist to the utmost all attempts that have been made or that may be made to exclude the Word of God from the public schools of this nation, and that where it is temporarily excluded, we will use special efforts to put the Bible in every Roman Catholic family."

Considerable discussion was excited by this proposition, and among other speakers G. G. Stroat made an argument in opposition to the resolution, maintaining that the country was a free one, where no trammels of sect should be established or attempts at undue religious pressure sustained.

These expressions were greeted with hisses, mingled with faint applause from every quarter of the house, and great excitement prevailed. The efforts of the presiding officer and the good judgment of some of the delegates ejected the excitement, and an apology was made for the acts of disapproval, and Stroat concluded his remarks. The resolution was passed, when the topic "lectures and lecturers" was treated by Rev. Martin, of New York.

CINCINNATI.

Distillery Case Closed.

CINCINNATI, June 14.—The testimony in the Plank Road distillery case, involving claims on the part of the Government for $300,000, closed to-day, after ten days of an unusually bitter contest. Judge Matthews to-day, on behalf of the Government, withdrew the charges against two of the defendants, J. W. Goff and Peter Sewah. It came out in testimony that Mr. Goff had, since the first internal revenue law went into operation, paid to the Government $22,000,000 taxes.

AGRICULTURAL WEATHER REPORTS.

WASHINGTON, June 14, 1872.

THE GENEVA ARBITRATION.

The points of the draft of instructions from the British Government to the agent at Geneva have been received. The note recites that the correspondence had on the subject of the supplemental article, and the refusal of the United States to discuss the propositions to amend the article, compel Great Britian to reluctantly withdraw from the arbitration, and leave the responsibility of failure upon the Government of the United States. Reference is made to the arrogance of the United states in attempting to dictate the Treaty stipulations which the British Government shall accept, and the refusals of the United States to discuss the proposed changes is contrasted with the friendly spirit evinced by Great Britain in making these proportions.

If the counsel for the United States have an opportunity to speak before the arbitrators, it is understood they will in a most emphatic manner express the contempt which the United States has for the conduct of Great Britain throughout the controversy.

CUBAN FILIBUSTERING EXPEDITION.

The Daily Morning Caronicle to-day contains an account of what is proposed to be done under the lead of Gen. Ryan, who left on the steamer Fannie for Cuba. The plan of operations is stated to be. On disembarking, Gen. Ryan will first rally the coast guards and immediately dispatch a fleet courier to the interior of the island to announce to the insurgents, already aware of an approaching army of liberation, his arrival, and will with all expedition get together the largest force he can for the purpose of protecting the landing of two expeditions which follow him without delay. Three steamers put to sea on the same day, each one having the same destination, but the Fannie will reach the rendezvous some little time in advance of the others. The entire force amounts to fully 1,200 men, and all of them are completely armed and equipped. General Ryan will remain on the coast, and expects to have within forty-eight hours of his landing at least 5,000 true Cubans rallied to his standard and ready armed, to fight if necessary for the protection of the disembarkation of the men from the two other steamers. More expeditions are to follow. One is already started, and strong hopes are entertained that the great object will be accomplished between now and the Presidential election.

The Fannie has on board 3,000 Remington breech-loading rifles, 2,000 Enfield rifles, 500 Winchester carbines, 2,000 Colt's navy revolvers, 2,000,000 rounds of ammunition, a battery of six field-pieces and three tons of powder, together with a great quantity of saddles, bridles, medical stores and clothing.

AGRICULTURAL WEATHER REPORTS.

The signal service and weather reports, which were only originally intended for the benefit of commerce, have proved so useful to the agricultural interests of the country, that the Secretary has authorized the War Department to extend the working of the system so as to provide especially for the agricultural interests by the collection of reports from various points in the interior.

WEATHER PROBABILITIES.

Partially cloudy weather will prevail on Saturday over the Ohio valley, with light to fresh northerly to westerly winds, and over the southern States and east of Mississippi, with light to fresh westerly to northerly winds; clear but partially cloudy weather for the middle and New England States, with light to fresh southwesterly to north-westerly winds.

POLITICAL.

A "Mean Lie" of the "Crazy Greeleyites."

TERRE HAUTE, June 14.—As an act of justice to Mr. Voorhees, his friends request the publication of the following, which will appear in the Terre Haute Journal to-morrow morning: "By means the one of the most infamous lies ever started by the crazy Greeleyites, was a telegraph dispatch which they caused to be sent all over the country from Indianapolis last Wednesday, stating that the Hon. D. W. Voorhees was declared as an additional candidate to the Baltimore Convention by his district. That report was utterly and cruelly false. When Mr. Voorhees reached Indianapolis on Tuesday evening he was called upon by friends from his own Congressional district, and was urged to go as a delegate to the Baltimore Convention from that district. Mr. Voorhees promptly and imperatively declined the use of his name in that connection, and all of these facts there is abundant proof. To show that the district did not mean to repudiate his cause, he was the next morning unanimously agreed upon by the district as a delegate from the State at large. This was done without the knowledge or consent of Mr. Voorhees, and as we understand, for the purpose of preventing the action of the district on the evening before from being misunderstood or misrepresented, as it has been. As to Mr. Voorhees' position in this district, we know that he can have a race for Congress by unanimous consent, and we further know that the strongest Greeleyites in the district have approved him, urging his acceptance of the nomination as the only hope of carrying the district for the Liberal party, and thereby save the Congressman, the State ticket and Legislature."

That Proposed Sorehead Meeting.

ST. LOUIS, June 14.—The Republican tomorrow will contain the following, using the very language suggested by Mr. Schurz in reference to the proposed New York consultation: The meeting of gentlemen opposed to the re-election of Grant, which, according to a dispatch published yesterday, will be held in New York on the 20th of this month, is to be composed of gentlemen representing all the different shades of opposition, and not, as has been suggested in some quarters, of men unfavorable to Mr. Greeley as a candidate. The object of this is to endeavor to unite all the elements of opposition for common action. The list of signers of the invitation, as given in the dispatch, can hardly have been complete, as we have been informed on reliable authority that the name of the name of Senator Schurz was obtained only upon an understanding that the invitation should be signed also by some other gentlemen known to be friendly to Greeley and distinctly representing the Cincinnati nominees, and should be addressed to prominent men, known to be of the same way of thinking.

Fourteenth Illinois Republican Convention.

CHICAGO, June 14.—The Republican Convention of the Fourteenth Illinois District, at Toledo, yesterday, nominated Joseph G. Cannon, of Douglass county, for Congress, on the thirty-ninth ballot, defeating J. H. Moore, the present Congressman.

The Brooklyn Democrats want a Straight Ticket.

NEW YORK, June 14.—The Jefferson Democratic General Committee of Brooklyn passed resolutions favoring a straight Democratic ticket at Baltimore.

Conciliatory Course Towards the Democrats.

ST. LOUIS, June 14.—The Liberal State Committee held a meeting to-day, at which the subject of holding a State Convention was discussed, and it was decided not to call one until after the Baltimore Convention. Senator Schurz and Governor Brown were present. Both made speeches, in which they advised a conciliatory course towards the Democrats.

AMONG THE CHURCHES.

General.

THE grand old "coronation" hymn is to be sung at the Boston Jubilee.

BISHOP AMES will dedicate the Centre Street M. E. Church, Cumberland, Maryland, to-morrow.

THERE are 1,221,393 children in the Sabbath Schools connected with the M. E. Church in this country.

THE Protestant Episcopal council held at Norfolk a few days ago passed a resolution strongly denouncing "round dances."

THE Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States reports an actual accession to its communion last year of 24,114, being a larger percentage upon its whole number of members than any other church.

THE Independent Synod of Missouri has lately taken a vote to determine the question of union with the Southern Presbyterian Church. The vote stands thus: 64 for and 57 against. It is doubtful, though, whether the union will be consummated.

EDMOND DE PRESSENSE writes to the Watchman and Reflector that the meeting of the Synod of the National Reformed Church of France, which is soon to take place, will certainly result in a separation between the Evangelical and Rationalistic parties.

ON Saturday last, Rev. Father Cyrillus Knoll, Prior at St. Peter's and St. Paul's Catholic Church, Cumberland, Md., accompanied by Rev. Father Anselem of the same church, set sail from New York for Europe. The Reverend Fathers contemplate visiting the principal cities of Germany, France and Italy. They will be absent several months.

IN the Consistory held by Pius IX. on the 8th inst., in which he provided some vacant Sees with Bishops, a decree was promulgated wherein it was established that for future the Bishops of St. Joseph, Spouse of the Blessed Virgin, and Patron of the Catholic Church, should be kept in the Vatican with special solemnity in the Pontifical Chapul, with music, &c.

THAT portion of New Orleans known as Jefferson city had on Sunday a Catholic celebration and procession. The procession, which started from St. Stephen's Church, was headed by Jaeger's band, followed by several associations and societies. One division was almost entirely formed by a band of sweet young girls, who are members of a society called the "Children of St. Mary." The crowd that assembled to witness the procession was, indeed, a vast one.

THE new Bishops of the Methodist Episcopal Church have distributed themselves as follows: Bishop Bowman will preside at St. Louis; Bishop Harris, Chicago; Bishop Foster, Cincinnati, O; Bishop Wiley, Boston, Mass; Bishop Merrill, St. Paul, Minn; Bishop Andrews, Omaha, Neb; Bishop Haven, Atlanta, Ga; and Bishop Peck, San Francisco. The residences of the above bishops remain as follows: Bishop Janes, New York; Bishop Simpson, Philadelphia; Bishop Scott, Odessa, Del.; Bishop Ames, Baltimore. Bishop Morris is placed on the retired list.

THE Hon. Horace Greeley is a Universalist—a member of the Chapin church, New York. Hon. B. Gratz Brown is a Presbyterian—a member of the First Church, St. Louis, of which Rev. C. A. Dickey is pastor. President Grant is not a member of any church, but attends living services in the Methodist church in Washington while and most of his relatives are members; and to this church his contributions are quite liberal. Mr. Wilson is a consistent member of the Orthodox Congregational Church, and is in practice a strong Sabbatarian and temperate man.

THE Bishops of the M. E. Church in their pastoral address make this allusion to public schools. "In this connection we cannot refrain from warning you against the efforts of a corrupt and decaying hierarchy to regain its power through the unwise control of, or destruction of, the school system of our country. The bond between intelligence and public virtue is so evident that it is only necessary to remind you of this in order to secure your support of that system of universal primary education which we must regard as the great conservator of Protestant liberty."

D. L. MOODY having been applied to recently by a representative of the Chicago pulpit for a sermon, replied as follows: "Dear Brother Moody, born in the flesh 1837; born in the spirit 1856; don't know when the flesh will die—spirit immortal. That's all that's worth recording of my life.—my natural and my new birth. If don't want another word said, and I have never before given to any one even as many facts, because it makes the cold sweat start out whenever I hear that anything I say or do or have done is to go in print. I'm the most over-estimated man in America."

AFTERNOON SESSION.

The Convention was called to order by the President. Reading of minutes of morning session dispensed with.

Mr. James reported on the "Rights of Clergy," that the list given by the Bishop is correct. Report of Committee on Finance discharged. Rev. Messrs. Hill and Burgwin reported themselves not ready to report on Rights of Lay Delegates.

The following was offered by the Rev. W. G. Lewis, and seconded by B. B. Vincent, Esq.:

WHEREAS, It has pleased the Church militant to remove from the Church militant, General John Dick, deputy elect to this Convention, from Christ Church, Meadville, be it therefore

Resolved, That we bear willing testimony to his character as a devoted and consistent communicant of this Church, and a faithful servant of Christ. In him, always ready to assist actively in the furtherance of its enterprises, and liberal in his aid, the Church has lost a true friend, and the community of his parish the example of a true and high minded Christian.

The preamble and resolution were adopted.

Rev. Dr. Preston explained why the parish of St. Andrews was unrepresented. No one would come because it was uncertain whether they would be admitted, on account of the difficulty in 1867 about the assessment. This parish had paid more relatively and paid more promptly than any other. Dr. Kilkelly moved that arrearages be wiped out.

Mr. King defended the Finance Committee from the charge of injustice implied by the remarks of Dr. Preston. The Doctor disclaimed any charge of intentional injustice. The subject was discussed by Messrs. Burgwin, Golden, Jones and others, and was eventually referred to a committee to report to this Convention.

Messrs. Howe, Burgwin and Jones reported through Rev. J. L. Spaulding, on Admission of Parishes. Mr. Golden dissented from the report in respect to the parish of the "Good Shepherd," and after some discussion the matter of its admission was made the special business for noon to-day.

A discussion was entered into on the subject of the appointment of a committee to the Federal Council of the three Dioceses of the State. The Bishop's address with reference to the subject, and the letter of Dr. Hare, were referred to a committee, to report at ten o'clock to-day.

Messrs. Scarborough, Finch, and Dr. Harris were appointed a committee to ascertain whether the Diocese should be entitled to more delegates in the District Convention.

Nominations were in order, and a motion was made to suspend, by a two-thirds vote, the rule requiring printed tickets. It was carried unanimously. The nominations were nearly all the same as the officials of last year. The elections will be held this morning.

On motion, the Convention adjourned until 7:30 to hear the report of the Board of Missions.

The Convention reassembled at 7½ o'clock and sat until 10. The evening was devoted to the subject of Missions. The Bishop called upon several of the clergy and laity, and they responded in short addresses. E. P. Jones, Esq., a Lay Delegate from St. Peter's, Pittsburgh, was among the effective speakers. The occasion was one of peculiar interest, and could not fail to stimulate the large audience to a greater zeal in the cause of domestic and foreign missions. Rev. Mr. Scarborough, of Trinity, and Rev. Mr. Fulton, of St. Johns, Pittsburgh, spoke most ably and earnestly for the cause.

EXTRAORDINARY ROBBERY.

An Editor Steals His Own Babe—Uses Bad Language—Makes Bloody Threats, and Flees.

The McKean Miner publishes the following: We have been given by a responsible citizen of Eldred township the particulars of a sad and exciting affair that happened in that township on Monday of this week. The most prominent actor in the tragedy is M. E. B. Haines, editor of the Selo Express, whom many of our readers remember as the gentleman so anxious to start a Democratic paper here last fall. The fact that Mr. H. has not for some time lived very happily in his domestic relations, and his wife, having left his bed and board, was living (with a babe between three and four months old) with her father and mother in Eldred, while her husband was shoving the quill editorial in Selo. But the paternal instinct in the bosom of Haines was stronger than the connubial, and though he could live without his wife, he must have the babe. He therefore, in the absence of Mr. Blackman (his father-in-law) steals away from his editorial labors, takes the cars to Olean, and with a hired horse and buggy starts for Eldred, bent upon the capture of the child. The fates were propitious. No one was at home except Mrs. Blackman and Mrs. Haines, and the babe was sleeping sweetly in the cradle. He snatches up the child, and pacifying its mother with the soothing words, "damn you, say a word and I'll shoot you down!" rushes out, lays the babe in the bottom of the buggy, and fled with his prize. Passing the school house where his sister-in-law was teaching, and seeing her standing in the door, he informed her he had got the baby, and pointing a pistol at her, said "damn you, come near me if you dare!" When he passed the house of C. B. Stull he again made the announcement, "I have got the baby." This latter gentleman, in company with some of the neighbors, have gone to Selo with the intention of recovering this little waif from the paternal grasp of the fighting editor of the Selo Express.

Protestant Episcopal Convention—Diocese of Pittsburgh.

FIFTH DAY.

ERIE, June 12, 1872.

The delegates, clerical and lay, assembled in St. Paul's church in this city, at 10 A. M. this day. After the usual religious services, in which the Revs. Messrs. Getz and Lewis officiated, the Annual Convention sermon was preached by the Rev. B. F. Brooke, D. D., of Christ church, Allegheny. This sermon was characterized by all the power, originality and impressiveness for which Dr. Brooke is justly distinguished. It was listened to with marked attention by the large number of clergy and people present. At the close of the sermon the Rev. Doctor addressed briefly the two young deacons about to be advanced to the order of the priesthood. The candidates for this dignity and honor were Rev. Boyd Vincent and Rev. Samuel K. McConnell, both young gentlemen of rare promise in the holy office to which their life has been dedicated. The candidates were then presented by Rev. J. F. Spaulding, and the bishop proceeded to ordain them according to the solemn form prescribed by the Church. Several of the clergy present joined in the laying on of hands. The Bishop then celebrated the holy communion, assisted by Rev. Messrs. Spaulding of St. Paul, Erie, Doctor White of St. Peter's, Butler, and John Scarborough of Trinity, Pittsburgh.

Divine service having been concluded, the Convention was called to order by the Bishop. A list of the clergy entitled to seats, prepared by the Bishop, was called over by the secretary of the last convention, and the following answered to their names:

Right. Rev. Bishop Kerfoot, Rev. D. C. James, Rev. George Slattery, Rev. R. S. Smith, Rev. J. F. Spaulding, Rev. M. A. Tolman, Rev. Dr. White, Rev. J. R. Mendenhall, Rev. Samuel S. Chevers, Rev. R. C. Caswall, Rev. William Bollard, Rev. O. S. Taylor, Rev. E. Roberts, Rev. Percival Beckett, Rev. R. J. Coster, Rev. W. C. W. Lewis, Rev. G. C. Rafter, Rev. Boyd Vincent, Rev. Edward S. Goldsen, Thomas J. Lowery, B. B. Vincent, Elijah Babbitt, E. Clark Wells, J. O. Phillips, F. H. Miller. Later in the day several other delegates arrived and reported their names to the Secretary.

Election of Secretary being in order, Mr. Burgwin nominated the Rev. R. J. Coster for re-election. There was no other nomination, and Mr. Coster was elected viva voce. The Secretary appointed the Rev. R. C. Caswall for his assistant.

REGULAR COMMITTEES.

The Chair appointed the following regular committees:

On Claims of Clergymen to seats.—Rev. D. C. James, Rev. J. H. McCandless, and Rev. O. S. Taylor. Time late. Monday, given at the Potter Chapel, by the Passionist Fathers Anthony, Basil and Angelo, upwards of eleven hundred received the Bread of Life.

A CORRESPONDENT writes from Rochelle, Ill.: "Rev. Samuel Ramsey, formerly of Tarentum, Pa., has been here, and last Sabbath preached four or five times in the streets."

AT a meeting of the Board of Trustees of Westminister College, held in Allegheny City, on the 4th of June, Rev. E. T. Jeffers, of Oxford, Pa., was elected President of the College.

REV. J. V. CELLARS, of Providence Mission Church, Allegheny, has been greatly broken down under his many and continuous duties, and is now in Ohio to rest and recover his strength.

THE Rev. A. A. Hodge, D.D., of the North Presbyterian Church, Allegheny, has gone to Detroit, to rest and recuperate from his recent illness. His pulpit is supplied by Rev. William Robinson.

THE Presbyterian Church of Sewickley is supplied during the absence of the pastor, Rev. Dr. Bittinger, in Europe, by William McKnight, a licentiate of the Presbytery of Pittsburgh, and a student of the Western Theological Seminary.

BISHOP SIMPSON, of the M. E. Church, reached this city on Monday afternoon, to remain perhaps some days. He is looking quite well, notwithstanding his strength was so severely taxed at the General Conference, especially in the early part of the session.

THE new M. E. Church at Beaver, Rev. W. H. Locke, pastor, is to be dedicated on the 23d day of June, and the Methodists of the town desire to make it an occasion that shall be remembered. All the former pastors of the church are cordially invited to be present.

A CONGREGATIONAL meeting will be held in the Second U. P. Church, Allegheny, on the evening of July 2nd, to select a pastor for the church, to fill the vacancy occasioned by the death of the late Rev. Dr. J. B. Clark. There are four or five candidates mentioned.

THE corner stone of the new church in Uniontown, to be erected by the colored people, was laid last Sabbath with appropriate ceremonies. There was a heavy rain falling at the time, but the exercises were gone through with in the presence of a large company. Dr. N. H. Williams conducted the services.

AT the General Assembly meeting of the Presbyterian Church which has just closed its session, a resolution was passed authorizing the trustees of the Western Theological Seminary, to procure the necessary legislation to have the name changed to the "Allegheny and Pittsburgh Theological Seminary."

THE Pittsburgh Baptist Association, at a recent meeting, passed a series of strong resolutions protesting against the manufacture, sale and use, in public or private, of intoxicating liquors, declaring

"As soon as the revenue can be dispensed with, all duty should be removed from tea, coffee and all other articles of universal use not produced by ourselves."—Grant.

"The progress by which the poor, honest, industrious, and resolute man raises himself that he may work on his own account, and hire somebody else, is the great principle for which this Government was really formed."—Lincoln.

The acceptance of the nomination of the National Republican party to the high office of Vice President of these United States, by letter, of Senator Henry Wilson, as published yesterday, was most graceful and dignified. It is a document worthy of distribution during the campaign, being able, eloquent and truthful, reciting in polished language the history and destiny of the great Republican party.

Andy Johnson, like the Post, refuses to say whether he will support Greeley or not if nominated at Baltimore. It is unnecessary, however, for either of them to give expressions to any opinion on the subject. If Greeley or the "old boy" were to be nominated at Baltimore, both would enter warmly into the campaign, and espouse the cause. Why will the Post not show a little of its former manliness, and tell the Democracy what it knows about Greeley—or something? "Old Mortality," speak out; you surely don't wear a brass collar, and will not support your bitterest political enemy, will you?

The action of our Government in abolishing all tax from tea and coffee has forced the Canadian Parliament to adopt a similar course, as their merchants could import from the United States, free of duty. In striking the duty off, our Canadian friends also enacted that tea and coffee imported from the United States should pay a duty. This was done to force Canadian merchants to purchase from England, or from China direct via England, and prevent them from buying from our merchants, or importing via the Pacific railroads instead of British or Canadian ship lines. Tea and coffee are, however, free, and all through the action of our government.

Statistics are published of the number of Union soldiers interred in the different National cemeteries in the original military division of the Tennessee, consisting of Kentucky, Tennessee, Alabama, Georgia and Mississippi. It is a sad record of the sacrifices of the war for the Union, and if ever figures were eloquent these certainly are. The total number of interments in the twenty National cemeteries in the States named aggregate 114,647—of this number 52,486 are known, and 62,161 of unknown soldiers. Some of the figures are as follows: Andersonville, 13,961; Chattanooga, 11,843; Memphis, 13,961; Nashville, 16,486, and Vicksburg, 12,665.

Persons charitably disposed, and wishing to make bequests at their last end should stick a pin in page 1,018 of Purdon's digest, where it is announced in language [illegible] that all behests to charitable objects are null and void unless made thirty days prior to the donor's death. Through ignorance of this fact a liberal bequest of $20,000, made by a recently deceased philanthropist of Allegheny to a most worthy charitable institution of that city, will probably amount to naught, as, under the law, his nearest heirs will have the privilege of saying whether or not the money shall go towards the purpose expressed in the will of the deceased.

Many prominent Democrats favor the acquiesence of their party to the renomination of Judges Sterrett and Stowe for the important seats they now occupy. Such a course on the part of the opposition would not only be graceful and dignified, but supremely wise and just. These gentlemen have served the people in their judicial capacities well and faithfully, never knowing the difference between political friend or foe, in the administration of justice. They have added dignity to the bench, and certainly the people should re-elect them to the places they have so honored without one word of opposition, for they are worthy such a compliment. Their election is a foregone conclusion anyhow, but it would be pleasing if the masses should drop partisan bigotry for the hour to step aside to pay a just tribute to such sterling honesty and true merit as make conspicuous the names of Stowe and Sterrett. Let them be re-instated in place without one dissenting voice, for they are eminently worthy such honor at the hands of their fellow-citizens.

Having given the despatch published in the Harrisburg Telegraph to our readers in yesterday's paper, it is but fair to give Forney's denial of the statement made, that he intended to desert Grant, and with McClure follow the waning fortunes of his old friend-foe Greeley. Here is what he says:

"I read in this evening's Harrisburg Telegraph, General Cameron's organ, that I have sold the Press to Greeley and Brown. Having none of General Cameron's experience in buying and selling men to vote for me for office, I can only add that I shall never do an act that would subject me to the constant fear of exposure and punishment. I shall fight for Grant and Wilson with all the fervor of my nature, and without a selfish aspiration, and it will not be my fault if the Press is not hereafter, as it has ever been, one of the foremost champions of the Republican party."

Whose fault will it be, pray? if you desert your principles and your party. You do not threaten only to bolt nominations, but intimate that there is a possibility that the Press may not hereafter be "one of the foremost champions of the Republican party." It makes no difference out this way, nor further east for that matter, who you support, or what party you claim to be a member of. You have utterly destroyed what influence, within the Republican party, you once possessed, by your fickle and childish perversity.

We hail with pleasure the announcement that several of our leading manufacturing establishments are about to adopt Monday instead of Saturday, as pay-day. It is no insult to our army of workingmen to say that the innovation will do much good towards advancing their pecuniary interests. In all lines of trade and industry Saturday and Sunday are regarded as quasi holidays—days on which money is expended in the attainment of questionable enjoyments in the way of eating and drinking. A plethoric purse bleeds liberally but an empty one cannot. Remove the opportunity for spending and extravagance will soon cease. If the day laborer gets his money on Monday, the beginning of his week of toil he will put it away, if married, in the hands of his wife, and will be forced to economize. To most of our working people pay-day is a sort of a Fourth of July. They dearly earn their money, but when it is in their hands care little about it, and let the dimes and dollars go with profligate looseness when seated in a joival Saturday night crowd. Let them get their wages while at work and they will not hie away to the tempting bar-rooms; but will place their earnings beyond their reach and give up the frolics growing out of the fact that a few dollars swell their pocket-books. We sincerely hope that the inauguration of Monday as a pay-day will be tried as an experiment by all of our heavy manufacturing firms, and trust that its general adoption will be attended with salutatory effects and greatly conduce to the betterment of the social and financial conditions of all grades of our laboring people. At best it is no harm to try the experiment. A penniless man on a Saturday night can hardly be a profligate.

GENEVA CONFERENCE.

The Geneva arbitrators convene to-day, when according to the announcement made by Mr. Gladstone in the House of Commons, an application will be made on behalf of England for an adjournment for eight months, to permit the negotiation of a supplemental article covering the principle of consequential damages. The English Cabinet endeavored to entrap our Government into making the application a joint one, but this was declined, and the responsibility for delay, if any occurs, will rest entirely with the English ministry. The representatives of the American Government will not resist the applicat ion, but do not share in the responsibility of making it. It will be conceded as a matter of courtesy, although not desired on our part. Neither will the President give his assent to the withdrawal of England from the arbitration. It must also face the responsibility on that point if it has the desire or the right to withdraw. The English Premier appears to be staggering under a heavy weight in Parliament. He is fast losing the support of his own party, and a vote of want of confidence, that will cause his resignation, and the restoration of Disraeli and the tories to power is not at all unlikely. The motion for an eight months postponement of the arbitration is believed to be mainly induced by a desire to tide over the parliamentary crisis. So long as the question is pending the government will be supported in the true English fashion, but once decided, or a good halting point reached, the parliamentary opposition will make its power felt.

A failure of the treaty in relation to the Alabama claims will not necessarily affect the provisions in regard to the San Juan and fishery questions. The Emperor of Germany is now in possession of the case of both countries on the San Juan boundary, and a cable dispatch says "will deliver his decision as soon as it is requested by both parties."

COLFAX.

No sooner does defeat visit an aspirant for office within the Republican party, than Democracy begins to pat him lovingly and sympathetically on the back, bent on pouring treasonable words into his ears. The weak and unprincipled give way beneath this expression of friendship, and, like Benedict Arnold, soon find that their new found friends despise and neglect them. The liberal party is largely composed of defeated aspirants for Republican favors, who are halting between duty and treachery, not bold enough to go over at once to the welcoming outstretched arms of congenial Democracy. Many of the loudest mouthed patriots (?) who train in the army of the opposition, like Johnson, Doolittle and others, are among the rejected of the Republican host. It is pitiful to listen to the demonstrations of grief, and witness the tearful condolence of our Democratic friends over the defeat of the patriot Colfax. No sooner had the nomination of Wilson been announced than the whole Democratic pack—Tray, Blanche and Sweetheart—began a most doleful and heart-rending cry over the ingratitude of the Republican (or Radical) party. "Was there ever such a noble fellow as this Colfax?" they said; "Was it not the most outrageous act of ingratitude ever perpetrated upon a pure-minded, faithful, patriotic citizen?" cried they with one voice, although the pens were scarcely dry with which they had bitterly denounced the same good man as the ring-leader of rampant Radicalism, and as the "smiling Schuyler."

They have missed their mark this time; they will not make a recruit of Schuyler Colfax. The miserable host of Democracy, and the equally miserable "crowd" of Liberals, will not be swelled by the addition of his presence, as he is not a Republican like the latter were, merely for the purpose of riding into office. His advocacy of, and adherence to, Republicanism, is prompted by love of principle and right. He is not built of the stuff of which Democrats or Liberals are made. He is Republican out of, as well as in, office, and will say to these weeping drill-sergeants, "get thee behind me."

STRIKES AND ARBITRATION.

The New York papers unite in stating that the strikes in that city are approaching a termination, with varied success, but on the whole the gain is on the side of the laboring men, inasmuch as a point has been attained by a portion of them, in regard to the eight hour system, which is not likely to be receded from, and must in the nature of things be conceded to other workingmen. The strike of the iron and metal workers on Thursday was the most important that has yet taken place in point of numbers engaged, but no result has been reached. It is noticeable in connection with these strikes in New York that they were successful just in proportion as they assailed trades in which large contracts were pending that could not be suspended without entailing heavy losses on the employers. This was the case with builders, masons, bricklayers and carpenters. In other trades, such as sewing machine and piano manufacture, where no such pressing necessity existed, in filling contracts, the strikers were not so successful. The New York Evening Post commends the moderation of the artizans as a whole, and says acts of violence were exceptional, arising from individual rashness, and were not countenanced by the men as a class. This is gratifying, of course, but of all absurd plans devised to settle differences, that of the strike or lock-out seems the most unreasonable. It almost invariably entails heavy losses, disturbs trade, and diverts business to other points. All this, as has been abundantly demonstrated in England, can be averted by the adoption of arbitration as a means of adjusting disputes between employer and employee. If the principle is once fully accepted, and its operation prevents a single strike by curing differences, it will grow in strength, and will be afterwards adopted with greater confidence in its efficacy. We accept it as a fact that a strike is objectionable to the great mass of those who engage in it; it is an inconvenience at best, and entails suffering and want in those least able to bear them; and it is certainly true that they are fanned into life by the arts of trade demagogues, who find their support in just such agitation. If, when an honest difference arises between the two classes of employer and employee, it could be referred to a board of arbitrators in whose decision both sides would have confidence, and in which they would acquiesce as an equitable settlement of the differences, all strikes and their attendant bad feeling and pecuniary losses could be avoided. Adopted in one trade the principle would rapidly spread to others, and in time become the rule. It is a wonder, when we consider the general intelligence of American mechanics and the enterprise and keen business foresight of our capitalists and employers, that this method of adjustment has not been discussed more generally, and at least given a fair trial. In part of the trades in England there are regularly constituted boards of arbitration, for the decison within certain limits of all disputed points, whether of wages or the conduct of business, and experience has demonstrated that the principle gains in strength and acceptability with every controverted question it adjusts.

MATTERS OF MOMENT.

Greeley is enjoying a fascinating vision of the White House in the distance. Let him enjoy the political mirage. It will always be that way—always in the distance for him.

"The handwriting on the wall" made by a New York toombs prisoner was the sentence, "In New York 342 churches with over $41,000,000 point heavenward; I'm here for stealing a loaf of bread for my child."

And some of the church people can't see what he meant.

The State Sunday School Convention—the local sensation of the week among the church people in our city—was attended by over three hundred delegates—a few of whom were from other States. They spent nearly three days in talking, and as might be expected, much of it might as well have been unsaid; there was an immense amount of chaff, but among it the observant worker could find some real wheat, and perhaps the gathering could be called a success.

Lizzie Garrabrant has at last come down—she has assumed the insanity role. An old fashioned jury said she was guilty of murder, the Governor showed no leanings toward clemency, all the howls of the defenders of free love made no impression and the old law "a life for a life" was about to be carried out when Libbie adopted the last phase of modern tactics. The doctors are "convinced" of her insanity, and a petition for pardon is being circulated. New Jersey people, however, believe in hanging and the petition—has not thus far met with much favor.

"H. V. R," the Cincinnati Commercial's Washington correspondent has been making inquiries among the leading representatives of the colored voters of the South, and comes to the conclusion that the "colored men are solid for Grant. It can be laid down as a broad proposition, subject to few and trifling exceptions, that the negroes of the South will not vote for Horace Greeley. So far, in my experience south of the Ohio, I have met but one who was for him, and he has voted the Democratic ticket for four years, and doesn't propose to change his course now that Greeley is nominated." Coming from the Commercial this admission is significant.

The Census Bureau, with its tables of statistics, gives some curious information. The temperance people will be interested in one item. It appears from its tables that in those States where total prohibition is enforced, that the people are more prone to suicide, taking themselves off by shooting, hanging, drowning, and like short and effective methods. But then alcohol seems to do its work well, for the tables show that taking the two modes of self-destruction together, the ratio is higher in the non-prohibitory States. In Maine it is one in 18,500; in Maryland (non-prohibitory) one in 27,000; in Massachusetts (non-prohibitory), one in 11,530, and in Mississippi (non-prohibitory), one in 14,600.

Some idea of the magnitude of our trade in grain may be gathered from the following figures, representing the capacity for grain storage in some of the most important cities. Prior to the fire, Chicago had seventeen granaries, with an aggregate capacity of 11,580,000 bushels. This number has been reduced by the fire to eleven establishments, with facilities for elevating and storing about 8,580,000 bushels. Buffalo has thirty-one granaries, capable of holding 7,415,000 bushels. Brooklyn, representing the port of New York, has at its Atlantic docks and elsewhere, a storage capacity for 12,750,000 bushels. The foreign export of flour and grain from the port of New York for the four years from 1867 to 1870 inclusive, amounted to 5,711,439 barrels, a sufficient quantity to sustain for a year a population of more than 13,000,000 persons, and, if spread to the depth of one foot it would cover more than 2,500 acres.

POLITICAL NOTES.

Senator Wilson will canvass the Southern and some of the Western States in behalf of the Republican ticket, in August and September.

J. Brisbin Walker, a former resident of Allegheny county, has been nominated as the Republican candidate for Governor of West Virginia.

Col. Forney left Philadelphia on Wednesday for Texas, on railroad business. It must be very comforting for the Colonel to get out of Pennsylvania at this juncture.

Ex-President Johnson, who has been in Washington, is non-committal on the Greeley question. He will abide the Baltimore Convention and take the stump for Greeley.

It is said that General W. F. Bartlett, of Massachusetts, one of the leading Liberal Republicans, will in a few days declare against Greeley and go back to Grant, unless Charles Francis Adams shall be nominated.

The New York Herald advises Greeley to withdraw in favor of Chief Justice Thompson, of Pennsylvania, since events have amply demonstrated that he (Greeley) cannot secure the united support of the Democratic party, a condition precedent to even a hopo of success.

The Prohibitionists of Michigan are in the field with a straight ticket for State officers. They have the Ohio law in that State but it don't satisfy them. An electoral ticket was also nominated, pledged to the prohibition candidate for President, Judge James Black of Lancaster, in this tate.

The colored voters of Cleveland held a rousing mass meeting Wednesday night, to ratify the nomination of Grant and Wilson. After passing resolutions heartily and unanimously endorsing the nomination, they appointed an executive committee to make arrangements for a thorough organization of the colored voters in the city.

Oregon appears to be fully redeemed. The majority for Wilson, the Republican candidate for Congress, is about two thousand, and a majority on joint ballot has been gained in the Legislature, thus securing a United States Senator in place of Senator Corbett, whose term expires next year. Wilson, the Congressman-elect, is the first member chosen to the Forty-third Congress.

The late Democratic State Convention in Louisiana amounted to a virtual triumph of the opponents of Mr. Greeley. Attempts were made to pass resolutions instructing the delegates to Baltimore to vote for the Cincinnati nominations, but the opposition was so violent that the convention adjourned without taking action. Gov. Wickliffe was the principal opponent of the philosopher.

In a letter to H. McChesney, of Troy, N. Y., dated Sept. 23, 1862, and published in the New York Tribune of the 26th of the same month, Horace Greeley, speaking of the right of secession, thus declared himself:

"But I still insist that, if it had been that the people of the slave States—or even of the cotton States alone—had really desired to dissolve the Union, and had peacefully, deliberately and authoritatively expressed that wish, we should have assented to it. At all events, I should."

The President's letter of acceptance is received by the Boston Transcript as the missive of a plain, blunt man, who speaks right on concerning the honesty of his intentions and his determined purpose to serve the public to the best of his ability. It says: "The people will relish his naive admission of mistakes—the result of inexperience—and the confession will go far to annul the effect of much malignant criticism that would exaggerate the evil produced by trivial errors. Evidently written in defiance of all recognized methods of partisan electioneering, the production will strike the popular instinct as the work of a level head, not turned by elevated station, and will immensely increase the popularity of its author."

THE STATE.

Adams.—The Grand encampment of the Pennsylvania department of the G. A. R. will be held at Gettysburg, July 2, 3 and 4. The camp will probably be pitched in the grove adjoining the Springs Hotel, Mr. Hoppes having been engaged to furnish entertainment for the entire party. The officers of the Grand Army are endeavoring to arrange with the 1st Army Corps to have the Reynolds statue unveiled at the same time.

Armstrong.—The Republicans by their primaries placed the following ticket in the field: Delegate to Constitutional Convention, James E. Brown, Kittanning, subject to the decision of Conference; Congress, Samuel M. Jackson, Apollo, subject to the decision of Conference; State Senate, James Campbell, Clarion, subject to decision of Conference; Assembly, Phillip K. Bowman, Kittanning; Prothonotary James G. Henry, Kittanning; Register and Recorder, W. R. Milliron, Kittanning; Commissioner, William Buffington, Redbank township; Auditor, W. G. Roney, North Buffalo township.

Blair.—The Altoona Sun says: "A storm, said to have been the heaviest that has visited this section for many years, came up on Tuesday noon last, and lasted for near three-quarters of an hour. It was composed of thunder lightning and rain."——The Republicans have put the following ticket in the field. Congress—S. S. Blair; State Senator, John A. Lemon; Assembly, S. R. McCune; Treasurer, Geo. Metz; County Commissioner, David Aurandt; Poor Director, Frederick Young; Auditor, John Bohn; Constitutional Convention, J. W. Curry.

Berks.—They fear a water famine in Reading.——The income returns for this district show an increase of 100 per cent. since last year.——The Reading Gas Works has been enlarged to double its present capacity.——Reading is to have a new Masonic Hall.

Bedford.—Two new school houses are to be erected the coming summer.——A new depot just completed is the pride of Bedford.——The Kemble Coal & Iron company are going to use a patent tunnel drill, in making the tunnel in this county. They propose using one in Dunning mountain, east of Bedford.

Cambria.—In Conemaugh borough, about two weeks ago, a child was born which bids fair to prove a greater curiosity than the celebrated Siamese twins. The infant we speak of was born with a duplicate part of itself attached to its body above the navel, but while this duplicate part is almost perfect in every other particular, it is headless. The lower limbs are well formed, as also its body and arms, but there is only one finger on each hand. The body is turned inward and only requires a head to make a well formed child. This infant is stout, a hearty, fine looking female, and if it should live will prove a wonderful curiosity.—Johnstown Echo.

Clarion.—The Progress is the title of a new semi-weekly paper started at St. Petersburg. It is a neat little sheet containing twenty columns, well filled with reading matter and advertisements.——A new bridge is to be erected across the Allegheny opposite Foxburg.——They talk of consolidating Foxburg, Antwerp, and Petersburg.——The Progress sums up the production of oil in the Petersburg district as 1,867 barrels per day—an average of 22⅔ barrels to each well.——Says the Progress: "Persons who have not visited St. Petersburg, have little idea of the growth of the place within the last year. Originally a town of a scant dozen inhabitants, it has now a population of 1,000 or 1,200, all active, industrious, paying business men. Many of them are gentlemen, too, and ladies, whose common sense has not been driven away because they have been peculiarly favored by fortune, in having, as the Yankees say, "penetrated a reservoir of the oleaginous fluid, commonly called petroleum." There are now in the course of erection more than thirty buildings of different descriptions. And what is a more favorable sign, good substantial buildings are taking the place of the six-by-eight-stand-up-if-you-will-and-fall down-if-you-must so commonly erected, at a cost little more than four for a dollar or five for fifty cents."

Chester.—The Phœnix Iron Company shipped, during the month of May, over 1,200 finished bridges, worth nearly two hundred thousand dollars.——West Chester folks are talking about erecting a monument to the memory of the deceased soldiers.——The Oxford Press states that the amount of butter shipped from that place to Baltimore by railroad, during the month of may, was 14,808 pounds, an increase of nearly six thousand pounds more than during the same period last year. At an average of forty cents per pound this would amount to $5,959.20.——The Grant Clubs have commenced organizing all over the county.

Erie.—Housebreakers are annoying the residents of Union just now.——Small-pox in Cambridge Borough.——A masonic impostor has been victimizing the people around North East.——Dog poisoning is the fashionable amusement in Union.

Jefferson.—The Brookville Republican says: The showers of the past three weeks have greatly improved the crop prospects in this county, everything is now looking bright and thrifty. The fall grain, as a rule, is thin and will not be near a full crop, still where it escaped the winter it is now looking well and will, if nothing unfortunate yet overtakes it, do finely. The grass also is improving, and our farmers will hardly see forty dollars per ton for hay the coming winter. The fruit is still safe, and apples, peaches, cherries, &c., are loaded with thrifty fruit, while the smaller kinds promise well.

Juniata.—Last Monday the annual meeting of the Dunkers or German Baptists commenced at Goodville Church, Fayette township. During the afternoon three persons were immersed. In the evening the Lord's Supper was celebrated. The membership of this church in this county is large. The following preachers from other counties were in attendance: Rev. Peter Meyers, of Mifflin county; Rev. Graybill Meyers, Huntingdon county; Rev. Daniel Good, Franklin county; Rev. John Garver, Huntingdon county; Rev. M. Harnish, Perry county.——Farmers say that cut worms are doing an unusual amount of damage in the cornfields this season.——Appearances indicate an abundance of fruit.

Lawrence.—Wheat looks well in this county.——They cleared thirty dollars at a Decoration Day concert in New Castle.——The Republicans have put the following ticket in the field: Hon. John W. Wallace for Congress, Samuel McKinley for State Senate, Geo. W. McCrackin for Assembly, Thomas Pomeroy for Associate Judge, Wm. McClelland for County Commissioner, Geo. Y. Leslie for County Auditor, S. Clarke McCreary for Prothonotary, and D. Craig for Delegate to the Constitutional Convention.——Miss Matilda Hindman of Pittsburgh, lectured in New Castle last week on "Woman and her claims."

Mercer.—A mad-dog was killed in Mercer last week.——Agnue is afflicting some of the people in Greenville.——A re-union of the family of David McDowell, late of Pine township, recently took place at the old homestead, now occupied by Joseph A. McDowell. There were present, Mrs. Hannah McDowell, and fifty of her descendants—children and grandchildren, and great grandchildren.——W. S. Mason, the son of a Union soldier, gets the West Point cadetship from this district.——There was a wedding in the county jail last week at Mercer. The lady was detained in prison and the lover called there and had the hymeneal ceremony performed.

Somerset.—Somerset is reviving. The Herald is out again.——Peter C. Meyers and John Guagy, of Summit Mills, on Thursday of last week sheared twelve Southdown and Cotswold sheep, one year old, the yield of the first one being twelve pounds of wool; [illegible] yielding

Union.—The Lewisburg Chronicle says: Some parts of this vicinity are swarming with full fledged locusts, that are reconnoitering for favorable spots to play havoc with the trees without exposure to the sharp-eyed birds. A cold, drenching rain, however, a couple of days ago, served to stiffen them badly. Birds and fowls devour them without mercy. The law prohibiting the destruction of insectiverous birds is just now extending its benefits. Birds are plenty and comparatively tame, and they follow locusts to the doors.

York.—Spotted fever prevails in York.——Late on Thursday night a man named Henry Stetnecker, aged about 60 years, was struck by the Cincinnati Express south, on the Northern Central Railway near York and instantly killed. The body was mangled and cut up in a terrible manner. A leg was picked up in one place; the intestines were strewn along the road and pieces of flesh scattered around the place of accident.——All the furnaces of the York Steel Furnaces, are now in operation.

A large portion of the cannon captured by the German forces during the French war is to be turned into bell-metal and recast for church bells. In this way not less than twenty parishes on the Rhine alone have been provided. The Cathedral of Cologne also obtained five hundred centners and that of Frankfort-on-the-Maine two hundred and sixty centners. Here is a diversion from the original purpose! Another Schiller might make a Leid der Glocke out of the theme.

Sickness of Forty Years' Duration Cured.

The cure related below is one of a very remarkable kind, on account of its long duration, and is well worthy of the attention of all those who may be afflicted with chronic disease of any kind, showing clearly that all such cases can be cured. It is that of Jacob Wagner, a respectable farmer, aged 63 years, of New Sewickley township, who has been in gradually failing health for a period of about forty years. The disease manifested itself by a continued cough and a wasting state of health, which, about the beginning of last October, culminated in an attack which showed that the lungs were becoming seriously affected. Mr. Wagner, in this state of his case, applied to Dr. Keyser, of this city, who, by a system of medicine of a restorative kind, has completely cured him and restored him to a state of health to which he has been a stranger for many long and weary years. His cure is thorough and complete, and evinces an amount of skill and perseverance in the treatment of such cases, by Dr. Keyser, which is rarely if ever attained in a life time. The cure was chiefly effected by Dr. Keyser's Lung Cure, and is another of the many instances of the wonderful restorative power of that medicine, in the cure of every disease of long standing, especially those in which the pulmonary organs and the blood are deteriorated.

Dr. Keyser's office is at 167 Liberty street, in the rear of his Drug Store, from 10 A. M. until 1 P. M., and from 3 until 6 P. M., and on Saturday's at night.

A treatise on Lung Diseases sent wherever it is wanted.

CAUSELESS DEPRESSION.

This expression is often used, but it is manifestly absurd. Gloom and melancholy are not spontaneous. They are unnatural mental conditions and usually have corresponding causes. If there is no apparent reason for despondency, it is a symptom of physical disease. In nine cases out of ten the stomach, the liver and the bowels are responsible for the cloud which rests upon the brain. In all such cases immediate and permanent relief may be obtained by the use of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. If the digestive organs are weak an invigorant is necessary; if the liver is disordered an alterative is required: if the bowels are constipated or irregular a gentle aperient is needed. In that famous vegetable remedy these three medicinal properties are commingled with several others of a scarcely less important character, and hence it speedily cures every species of hypochondria arising from material causes, by removing the causes themselves.

In the summer, when disorders of the stomach and bowels, bilious complaints and all diseases which affect the assimilating and secretive organs are especially prevalent, the importance of having this invaluable tonic, alterative and corrective in every dwelling, and within the reach of all who travel by land or water, cannot be overestimated. As it is a staple article throughout the country it would be next to impossible to find a settlement, near or remote, unprovided with a stock of this vegetable tonic.

DAILY GAZETTE.

FINANCE AND TRADE.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, FRIDAY, June 14, 1872.

There is but little that is novel transpiring in local money matters. The demand for loans at the large institutions have fallen off considerably; consequently there is evidence of a much greater desire for paper than has been seen for some time past. The bank statements, which have just been published, showing the condition of the national banks of this city, taken collectively, are satisfactory, and show them in good condition, ready to go on and do their share towards keeping up the trade of the city.

The foreign imports coming into New York continue as large as they did for the past six months. The imports from the 1st of January to date, exceed those of the same time last year nearly fifty millions, which, if continued to next January at the rate foreign goods are coming in at present, will make the excess close on to a hundred millions for the year. No wonder the premium on precious metals advances! Whilst the imports increase, the exports fall off.

The Iron market here is quiet, owing to the fact that the markets to the east show no signs of decline in price. The metal men there show no uneasiness, and the desire to sell is not over great. In Philadelphia, Scotch pig has been pretty generally bought up from speculators, and regular operators hold firmly. At the present the foreign markets are still, and pig metal could not now be imported without loss under fifty-two dollars gold. In regard to copper, the London Times of the 30th of May says: "Copper smelters have to-day advanced their prices £3 per ton, making the quotation for bough, £111; best selected, £113; and sheets, £116. Yellow metal has also been advanced ½d., and the quotation is now 10d. per lb."

Morgan & Co., London, are negotiating the ten million loan of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company.

Stocks opened weak and feverish and sold down in some cases one per cent. before call. At the first board reaction set in and prices advanced from ½ to 1½ per cent. The weakest stock has been Pacific Mail, and the strongest Erie. In the miscellaneous list Quicksilver sold up to 37¾ per cent. The market closed dull and steady with slight improvement at the close.

PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, FRIDAY, June 14, 1872.

ASHES.—Common Soda Ash, 4¾@5c; Refined, 6@6¼c; Nitrate Soda, 5c; Pots, 10c; Pearls, 11c.

APPLE BUTTER.—Sales, in a jobbing way, at 65 to 70 per gallon for fair to prime, and 75 for choice.

BUTTER.—There is apparently a slight improvement in the demand, but there is no advance in prices, and it is not likely that there will be for some days; quotations may be fairly given at 10 to 15 cts, according to quality and condition.

BROOM CORN.—We hear of occasional small sales within the range of former quotations, 5 to 8 cents, as to quality.

CHEESE.—Is unchanged with a fair jobbing trade; we continue to quote Dairy 11 to 12; Factory, 13¾ to 14 Goshen, 14 to 14½.

COUNTRY BACON.—Is dull, we continue to quote at 4 to 5 for shoulders, 6 to 8½ for clear sides, and 8 to 10 for hams. Country Lard, 7 to 8 cents.

CARBON OIL.—Is quoted at 19½ to 20 cts by the car load, and 2@3 cts additional for smaller lots.

CANNED GOODS.—Peaches, 3 lb cans) $6.00 to $7 per case; Tomatoes $4.50@5; Corn, $5.50@6.50, according to quality and brand.

CEMENT.—Louisville $2.50 to $2.75; Calcined Plaster $4.50; Cleveland white Lime, $2; eastern, $1.75.

DRIED FRUIT.—Peaches very dull; halves, 8¼ to 9 cts; mixed, 7½ to 8; quarters 6 to 7; peeled, 15 to 18. Apples, 9 to 11 cts. Blackberries, 14 to 15; pitted Cherries, 25 to 28; unpitted, 6 to 8.

EGGS.—The market continues rather weak in consequence of increased receipts, but prices are unchanged; 16 may be regarded as the ruling quotation, though there were some few small sales of strictly fresh at 17 cts.

FLOUR.—The market is quiet and devoid of a single new feature worthy of notice. We repeat former quotations; $8.75 to $9.25 for fair to choice spring wheat, and $9.50 to$10 for red winter wheat.

GRAIN.—The grain markets continue very dull; however, hopes of an early revival are entertained, though the indications at this writing are not very encouraging. The demand is very light, being restricted entirely to supplying immediate wants, and the volume of business in the aggregate is comparatively light; however, there has been no material change in prices for some days. Oats still reported dull, and without any average demand, and an unusually heavy supply, prices are weak, though not quotably lower; we continue to quote at 39@43c. Shelled Corn continues dull and neglected, though unchanged; 62@63 on track, and 65 free in elevator—we can report sales within the range of our quotations. Ear Corn dull; quoted at 60@62. Wheat continues very quiet, and there is scarcely enough doing to establish quotations; millers are still virtually out of the market, though it is expected that they will soon be obliged to commence buying again. Red Winter may be quoted at $1.90@$2. Rye is quiet and unchanged, $1@1.05—sale of 200 bushels at $1.05 delivered.

GROCERIES.—The coffee market is still excited and prices firm. Refined sugars are on the upward turn, and by next week it is thought the refiners will be reaping larger profits on their goods. We would therefore advise our friends to buy early. A firmer feeling has prevailed for several days, culminating in an advance to-day of ½c per pound on refined goods. Havemyer & Elder's syrup has advanced 5c per gallon; and all other grades are held firm.

REFINED SUGARS.—Standard Hards, 12¾; A Coffee, 11¾@; B, 11¾; Ex C, 11½; C Yellow and Circle C, 11¾.

COFFEE.—Rio—Choice, 27@27½; Prime, 26@25½; Good, 25¼; Fair, 25. Java, 29. Roasted, pure, 29@30; lower grades, 27@28.

RAW SUGARS.—Choice New Orleans, 11@11¼; Prime, 10¾; Good, 10; Fair, 9¾. Choice Porto Rico, 10¾; Prime, 10¼. Demerara—Choice, 11¾; Good, 11¼.

NEW ORLEANS MOLASSES.—Choice, 80; Prime, 75; Good, 70; Fair, 65.

SYRUPS.—Fancy White Drips, 65; White Honey, 60; Havemeyer & Elder's, 53@55; other grades, from 40@50.

RICE.—Carolina—Choice, 9¾; Prime, 9¼; Good, 9. Rangoon, 8@8¾. Patna, 8¾@9.

SPICES.—Grain Pepper, 24; do Pimento, 16; Cassia, 50; Cloves, 28; Nutmegs, $1.25.

HAY.—Continues very dull, and notwithstanding the receipts have fallen off considerably, the supply is still largely in excess of present requirements, and prices are weak, though unchanged. We continue to quote at $22 to $25 per ton for common to medium baled, and $26 to 28 for prime to choice. There is considerable hay stored, owned by parties who anticipate a reaction soon, and higher prices.

HEMP.—Kentucky sought at 10 per ton.

POTATOES.—There is rather more inquiry, but the supply is still largely in excess of the demand, and prices are no better; we can report sales in a jobbing way at 45@55 cts per bushel, as to quality.

POULTRY.—Live Chickens may be quoted at 70 to 85 cts per pair, by the coop.

PROVISIONS.—Plain shoulders, 6cts; sugar cured do, 8cts; ribbed sides, 8 cts; clear rib, 8¾cts; clear, 9 cts. Breakfast Bacon, 10½@11cts; plain sugar cured hams, 12¼; do, canvased, 12½. Lard; in tierces, 9¾; in kegs, 10¾; in buckets, 11¼. Mess Pork, 14¾. Dried Beef, 17¾. Ham sausage, 10.

RAGS.—Sales at 4@4¼cts per lb.

SALT.—Quoted at $1.85 per barrel by the car load, and $2 in a jobbing way.

SEEDS.—There is little or nothing doing in either Clover or Timothy Seeds. Flax Seed would sell, but there is none offering.

TALLOW.—Rendered 7¾ to 8 cts.

WILOWS.—Offerings light; sales in a small way at 10 cts.

WHISKY.—Highwines, in a jobbing way, may be quoted at 92@93 cts.

WOOL.—The market remains unchanged since the date of our last weekly report. Advices from the eastern markets are not favorable for any advance; in fact dull, and prices of some grades lower. We hear of considerable purchases being made in the country at about the following: Medium Fleece Wools, at 60@65c; and tub-washed, 65@70c. At these prices but little margin is offered to shippers at the current prices now ruling in the east. eern markets. In fine Fleece Wools but little is doing in the market as yet, and holders of same are not yet through with their shearing. The seasons seem to be later than usual. We think with the high expectations held by the growers, that nothing will be done in the line of purchasing fine fleeces until after harvest; by that time, no doubt the markets East and West will be fairly established, and both dealers and growers will be able to come to an agreement mutually satisfactory.

We quote prices nominal at 60@65c for Fleece; 62@70c for Tub-washed; 40c for unwashed Fine Wool, and 45c for unwashed Coarse Wool.

PETROLEUM MARKET.

OFFICE OF PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, FRIDAY, June 14, 1872.

The crude market opened weak, but for some reason or other, closed a shade firmer. Parker was quoted early in the day at $3.82½; at the close, $3.85. Sale of two barges, here, at 97¾ per gallon. Refined is quiet and unchanged; Spot or June, 22¾@22¾; July, 22¾ @ 23; August, 23½—no sales reported.

Oil barrels weaker, and a shade lower, in consequence of anticipated large arrivals by river; we now quote city barrels, at $1,40 @ $1,85; country, $1,70 @ $1,75.

PITTSBURGH IRON MARKET.

OFFICE OF PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, FRIDAY, June 14, 1872.

Since the date of our last report the pig iron market has been very quiet; with a demand confined entirely to supplying immediate wants, sales were very few and far between, and this state of affairs is likely to continue until next month, perhaps longer. However, prices are nominally unchanged; and while there is no declining yet it is not likely that any considerable amount of metal could be sold without concessions; the mills do not want it, and for the present are virtually out of the market, unless inducements, such as we have already intimated, were held out. As noted in our last report, the furnacemen understand the situation; hence the offerings are light, and this accounts for the fact that notwithstanding the depression, prices are still maintained. In time, mill owners expect to buy lower when they commence to contract for the fall trade, and, if we are not mistaken, this expectation is based mainly on an anticipated increased production.

Finished irons and nails are quiet, though their is a fair business for this particular season of the year.

RIVER NEWS.

The river was about stationary at this point last evening, but the Allegheny was reported rising, above with 40 inches in the channel, and this being the case, we may look for more water here to-day. Heavy rains are reported at the headwaters of both rivers, and the indications for a good coal boat stage, 10 or 12 feet, are very encouraging at this writing. It rained here nearly all forenoon, and in the evening the prospects were favorable for more. We have had more rain within the past few days than there has been during the same time for a year or more.

The Carrie Brooks from Wheeling, and the Granite State from Portsmouth, arrived and departed.

The Lucy Bertram and St. John are among the first boats due: as we noticed the other day, the Bertram went down to Pomeroy to assist the St. Johns up.

The Virginia is the regular independent packet for the headwaters of the Monongahela today, leaving promptly at 3 P. M.

It was hoped yesterday that the barge belonging to the Collier, which was badly used up on Thursday by striking the sunken coke barge at Brunot, could be repaired sufficiently to admit of her taking it on to St. Louis. The Collier, after the accident, swung around on the dam, and a considerable portion of her larboard guard was torn off.

The towboat J. S. Mercer, ran into the Carrie Brooks in Glass House yesterday, tearing out a number of wheel arms from the wheel of the Brooks.

The Mollie Ebert, Captain G. W. Ebert, is announced for St. Louis and all intermediate points. Captain Ebert has resolved to keep the Mollie permanently in the Pittsburgh and St. Louis trade.

The Wild Duck stuck a barge of iron ore at Merriman, on Thursday evening. It was being lightened yesterday, and is doubtless off before this.

—Samuel Houston, Supervising Inspector of Steamboats for the Louisville District, having resigned, the friends of Captain Samuel Mont gomery, of New Albany, have telegraphed the President to appoint him. The friends of Capt. Reynolds, one of the Local Board at Louisville, are urging his appointment to the vacancy.

—Geo. Day, watchman of the N. J. Bigley, who attempted to rape Fannie Tucker last November, and was shot while escaping from the officers, was arressed Tuesday evening, and placed in jail to await a requisition to be taken to New Albany, where the crime was committed.

—James Howard, Esq., the famous Jeffersonville steamboat builder, has been in Cincinnati during the past few days for the purpose of consulting with Theodore S. Seowden, Esq., with regard to the new canal locks he is building, and which are nearly completed.

—Captain Packer, on Wednesday, succeeded in putting through the canal the last of his twelve heavily-laden coal boats, which will be towed this week at Arkansas City and Natchez by the Smoky City.

The Exchange was dropped down to the Cincinnati landing on Wednesday, just off the ways, where she was lengthened 30 feet. The Jennie Howell follows her on the ways for the same purpose.

—Captains Branch, McElheny, and others, of Middlepoint, last week purchased of the Ohio Salt and Transportation Company the towboat Neal, and Captain Branch has assumed command.

—The Thompson Dean has laid up at St. Louis on account of low freights, and will take her turn in a regular line a few weeks hence. Captain Pepper has gone to Cincinnati.

—A barge of coal,—22,000 bushels,—which the Ajax had in tow from Louisville to New Orleans, struck a snag at Island 39 Thursday, and became a total wreck.

—The Submarine No. 14 has recovered some eight hundred bars of railroad iron from the Mississippi Valley Transportion Co's barge sunk at Hat Island.

—The Lula D, is going to run in the Alabama River trade, having been purchased by parties at Mobile for $4,000 cash.

—Rates to New Orleans have been advanced at St. Louis.

Sudden Death

Mr. William Bailey, of the firm of Bailey & Co., glass dealers of this city, while on a business trip, died very suddenly at Cambridge yesterday morning, on a west bound train of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad. The deceased had been running to catch the train, and it is supposed that death resulted from this cause. Deceased resided at No. 88 Western avenue, and was about sixty-five years of age.

Fall of a Scaffold.

Four men, who were engaged in painting the new Birmingham Market House, sustained serious injuries yesterday morning by the fall of a seafold on which they were at work. The scaffold, which was considered safe, gave way very suddenly, and the four men fell to the floor below. One of them, Henry Schmidt, sustained severe internal injuries. They were removed to their boarding house on Nineteenth street, East Birmingham, where Dr. Kerr attended them.

Armenia Insurance Company.

The following named gentlemen have been elected directors of the Armenia Insurance Company, of this city:

Messrs. S. S. D. Thompson, T. Brent Swearingen, Alex. Patterson, J. D. Scully, W. P. Logan, J. H. Walter, Chas. Zug, Hugh McNeill, A. Weise, John Heath, C. L. Straub, Henry Warner, John H. McCreary, Isaac Stewart, Jas. Laughlin, Jr., R. S. Waring, Joseph Phillips, Robert H. Dalzell, Joseph Gazzam, John A. Myler and Jacob Kopp.

The Railroad Ordinance.

A joint session of the Council Committees on Streets, Surveys, Railroads and Roads was held yesterday afternoon in the Select Council chamber, for the purpose of considering the proposed ordinance granting the use of certain streets to the Pennsylvania Railroad.

Mr. E. F. Jones was called to the chair.

A warm discussion took place upon the proposed ordinance, and innumerable amendments and substitutes were introduced, the majority of which, however, were voted down.

The business really transacted may be stated as follows: It was agreed to incorporate in the ordinance a section making Cherry alley of a uniform width of eighty feet; Washington street should be ceded to the railroad, provided the company erected a foot bridge of sufficient width to provide for the traffic of that thoroughfare.

A Narrow Escape.

On Wednesday afternoon, two young men named Frederick Kauff and David Watson were driving up Federal street, Allegheny, when the flagman at the railroad crossing warned them to stop, as a train was approaching. They paid no attention to him, however, and continued at a reckless rate. Just as the buggy reached the crossing, the approaching train was about half way across the street. Although the horse was urged to the top of his speed, the train struck the hind wheels of the buggy, throwing the driver to the ground, but fortunately not on the track. He was picked up in an insensible condition, and carried into the watchman's box, where he was soon restored. The other occupant of the buggy escaped unhurt. They were both arrested, and yesterday morning Mayor Callow fined the driver fifty dollars and costs for reckless driving.

Leaving Home.

All accounts agree upon it, that the rush to summer resorts the present season is unprecedented. Many people have already packed up and are off to the seaside or the mountains, or Europe, while others will soon be on the wing. The homes are deserted, and the seekers after rural pleasures and rest leave the house generally to take care of itself. In such cases, is it safe to leave anything of value, as diamonds, or plate, or jewelry, or other valuables of that kind to tempt the cupidity of burglars? Those who are wise will not run the risk of losing their valuables, but will rent a box from the Safe Deposit Company, Fourth avenue, in which to store their valuables. The articles then will be beyond the reach of the burglar or of fire. Plate can be placed in the vaults of that company for a year, and the same be withdrawn and returned at the owner's pleasure during that period without additional charge. Every person who has bonds, securities or valuable papers should rent a safe in that institution.

Resolutions of Respect.

The Board of Directors of the First National Bank of Allegheny held a meeting yesterday morning, at which the following resolutions of respect to the memory of the late Captain R. D. Cochran, were read and adopted:

WHEREAS, This board has been invaded by the messenger of Death in the early prime of one our midst of our friend and fellow-member, Robert D. Cochran, whose death occurred on Sabbath, June 9, 1872; Therefore,

Resolved, First.—That we accept this visitation as a call from God that we must not place our affections upon things on the earth, but rather lay up for ourselves treasures in heaven.

Second.—That in the death of our associate we have lost a friend, adviser and counselor, whose judgment was always in accord with the successful management of the bank.

Third.—We desire to put on record our testimony that, as a business man and bank director, among the traits of character noticeable in our departed friend were promptness in action, a well-balanced mind, and sensitive jealousy of business integrity; his word was, emphatically, as "good as his bond."

Fourth.—As a Christian gentleman, his life was a model of excellence. Liberal in his benefactions, sympathetic in his feelings, and always ready with a willing hand to help those who needed aid, we mourn his loss, yet we cherish his memory.

Fifth.—That a copy of these resolutions be presented to the friends of the deceased, and that the same be entered upon our minutes and published in the daily papers.

FALL OF A FLOOR.

The Third Floor of a Brewery Gives Way —Narrow Escape of the Occupants—A Remarkable Incident.

The third floor of Heid's Brewery, in Allegheny, gave way on last Thursday afternoon, and fell with a terrible crash that came near proving fatal to three or four of the occupants.

About three o'clock of the afternoon in question Mr. John Miller, who owns and occupies the building No. 501 East Ohio street, known as Heid's Brewery, thought he noticed a sinking of the third floor of the building. He immediately suspected that something was wrong, and as he had just stowed three hundred bushels of malt in the third floor, the idea of its giving way at once suggested itself. He accordingly called one of his men and the two started for the third floor. While they were on the stairs between the second and third floors, the third floor gave way and fell with a loud crash, carrying with it the second and first floors to the cellar. Very fortunately the stairway fell, and neither of the men were hurt. The stairway was a very old frame building, and was entirely destroyed. Considerable grain which was stowed in the building was also destroyed.

A most remarkable incident of the accident was the narrow escape of a little girl, a daughter of Mr. Miller, who was sitting in a chair on the first floor. A moment before the accident the milk man happened along and rang his bell. The girl seized a pitcher and ran into the street to get the milk. While she was outside, the building fell, and when the ruins were removed it was ascertained that a huge beam had fallen upon the same chair which the girl occupied a moment before. Probably a milk man was never before a means directed by providence, of compliship so much good.

THE COURTS.

Yesterday's Proceedings.

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT—JUDGE McCANDLESS.

In the case of William J. Johnston vs. Giles S. Rates and the same vs. Robert Hill, the defendants denied the allegations of the plaintiff and demanded a jury trial. The Court ordered the trial at the October term.

A petition in bankruptcy was filed by R. S. Davis against Nicholas Overfield.

CRIMINAL COURT—JUDGE STERRETT.

The following cases were disposed of yesterday:—

John Chambers, indicted for attempting to commit an outrage upon the person of Mary Dalbo, aged seven years, was found guilty, and sentenced to the Penitentiary for five years. The Court remarked that the evidence was overwhelmingly conclusive, and regretted that the law limited the term to five years.

John Wallace was convicted of the larceny of a silver watch and some articles of jewelry from the store of John Thresher. He was sent to the Work House for two years.

Henry C. Bowers, charged with assault and battery was found not guilty, but directed to pay the costs.

The case of the Commonwealth vs. James Sullivan, indicted for malicious mischief, was settled, by permission of the Court, upon payment of costs by defendant.

In the case of Eliza Bridge, alias Stoy, charged with larceny, the Court allowed a nol. pros., it appearing that the property had been restored to the owner, and that there were grave doubts whether it had been taken with felonious intent.

What's the use of sending east for a buggy or carriage and trusting to luck for a good article, when you can buy one at home, have the privilege of thoroughly testing it, save money, and encourage home manufacture, by purchasing the vehicle of Messrs. Workman & Davis. They now have an excellent assortment to select from at Nos. 167, 169 & 171 Penn avenue.

THE STACKS MURDER.

A Verdict Rendered—Bender "Not Guilty."

The Criminal Court room was kept open till ten o'clock on Thursday night, the Judges waiting on the bench, in order that if the jury in the Stacks murder case agreed upon a verdict they might deliver it and be discharged. Up to the hour named, however, no verdict was arrived at and the Court room consequently closed. Yesterday morning about ten o'clock the Court was notified that the jury had concluded upon its verdict and shortly after, under charge of an officer they came into Court. The usual preliminary questions were asked and when the main interrogatory was put, the foreman announced that the verdict was "Not Guilty." This announcement seemed to surprise everybody present and a solemn stillness reigned for a moment, which was broken by the friends of the prisoner who attempted to get up a demonstration of satisfaction at the result. It is needless to say that the verdict has caused considerable dissatisfaction, and that all who heard the evidence in the case are at a loss to reconcile with it, the conclusion arrived at by the jury.

As the case now stands the only fact which has been proven is the killing of officer Stacks. Bender has been tried for that murder and has been acquitted. Sam Golden, the colored driver, who must have seen the whole occurrence, is indicted as an accessory, and he must go free, as the Commonwealth has failed to find a principal. In the matter of Kocher, a nolle pros. has been entered, and he, therefore, cannot be tried.

The fact is that on a bright moonlight night in April, Officer John Stacks was fouly murdered. A man has been placed on trial for that murder and has been acquitted. The only other men who can be answerable for the crime cannot be proceeded against, and the murder, while universally admitted, must pass into oblivion without the guilty parties receiving any punishment. This is a dangerous precedent, and the public is sensible that such is the case. It is difficult to speak of the man Phillips, who could have fixed the crime upon some one, without a measure of bitterness. This man, who has been associated with Mr. Reineman in the conduct of the Opera House Saloon is said to have seen the commencement of the difficulty, which resulted in the death of Stacks. He was present in Court when the case was first called, but absent when he was wanted. The reason for this absence is only a matter of conjecture, and we leave our readers to form any opinion which to them may seem correct.

All that can be said as to the matter is this: A man was foully murdered. One of three men, according to the evidence in the case and the admissions of counsel, must have been guilty, but all three of these are allowed to escape. The inference is that the murder of a policeman is a matter of little consequence, and yet to the members of the police force we look for the guarding of life and property. What the issues of this remarkable verdict may be it is impossible to predict.

POLICE NOTES.

Brief Mention of Criminalities.

Joseph Schreber makes an information before Alderman Taylor against Joseph H. Schriberg, charging him with the larceny of cooper tools valued at $11, which the deponent believes to be in the possession of one E. De Roy. A warrant was issued for the arrest of the defendant.

Elizabeth Schreber made an information before Alderman Taylor charging E. De Roy with receiving stolen goods, knowing them to be stolen. Warrant issued.

There seems to be some misunderstanding among the natives of sunny Italia. Two informations were yesterday made against Frank Graciam, the proprietor of a peanut stand, one by John Paoti, charging defendant with surety of the peace, another by the mother of deponent, Viola Paoti, charging him with assault and battery, in calling her vile names. Alderman Strain issued the warrants.

The Mayor, yesterday disposed of twenty-six common cases.

Leathy Campbell, William Clarke, Joseph Smith, Lilly Burns, John M'Guire, John Adams, James M'Caffrey, and John Mitchell, were each sent to the workhouse for thirty days, yesterday by the Mayor. All were charged with disorderly conduct.

Joseph Aentill, a vagrant, was setenced yesterday by the Mayor, for sixty-days.

Annie Reynolds and Lou Baker, for chronic disorderliness, received ninety-day tickets to the workhouse from the Mayor yesterday.

James Gougher and James Doyle, both restaurant keepers, had some difficulty yesterday which resulted in a fight on Fifth Avenue, near the Post Office. Officer Sayres settled the trouble by arresting both parties.

A woman named Catherine M'Cormick, was brought before the Mayor yesterday, charged with committing an assault and battery on Mary Ryan. The parties reside in the twelfth Ward.

Before Alderman Strain, yesterday, E. Deckenhaugh makes information against James Reilly, charging him with malicious mischief in destroying a judgment note for twenty dollars, which he held against the defendant. He alleges that when he presented the note for payment, the defendant snatched it and destroyed it. Alderman Strain issued a warrant.

RAILROAD ACCIDENT.

A Colored Boy Killed by the Cars.

Yesterday afternoon about five o'clock as a passenger train on the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne & Chicago Railroad was coming east towards Anderson street, Allegheny, a colored boy about twelve years of age ran after the train, it is supposed, with the intention of stealing a ride. At the same time a freight train was approaching from the west. In his pursuit after the passenger train he did not notice the approach of the freight train and was struck by the locomotive. The wheels passed over him severing his right leg and right arm and fracturing his skull, from which he died in a very few moments. He was carried to his home in Robinson street. An inquest upon the remains will be held this morning.

Amusements.

PITTSBURGH OPERA HOUSE.—With to-day's two performances—matinee and evening—the engagement of Manning's Minstrels at this house will close. As this is the case, it is only right that we should remind our readers that the entertainments given by this company are really first-class, and, while fun and humor abound, nothing approaching the vulgar is allowed during the performances. The singing of the quartette in the first part is above the average, and the second part introduces a number of performers who, in their peculiar specialities, cannot be surpassed.

ACADEMY OF MUSIC.—Messrs. Carncross & Dixey and their company have met with richly deserved success during the past week, the Academy having been crowded in every part at each performance. In order to allow all, the opportunity of witnessing their entertainments, Messrs. Carncross & Dixey have been prevailed upon to remain in the city for another week. This extended stay will allow many who were unable to procure seats during the present week, to enjoy an evening at the Academy.

The Age of Miracles.

The age of miracles is said to have forever passed away, but there are sometimes occurrences in our midst which would lead to the belief that miracles are still performed. An instance of this character has recently come to our notice, in which, though the blind did not receive sight, a woman not blessed with the use of her eyes was able to do what no woman never did before, viz: to run a sewing machine. The lady in question was seen in the store of the Domestic Sewing Machine, No. 20 Sixth street, busily engaged in sewing, and her work was of the most exquisite nature, quite as even and regular as any we ever saw. No other machine before the public is so simple in construction as the Domestic and this fact is conclusively proved, when a blind woman can use it successfully. The name of the lady will be furnished on application to R. W. Steadman & Co., No. 20 Sixth street.

Their Success.

Messrs. Wm. Heipenheide & Co., No. 59 Sixth (late St. Clair) street, confine themselves to making the best goods for gentlemen's wear, at the most reasonable prices, and by paying strict attention to their business on this plan, they have secured a reputation which is not excelled by any firm in the city. The character of their work, and the satisfaction they give every patron, is a continual advertisement of the very strongest character.

They are now prepared to make to order summer suits for gentlemen, for business or dress occasions, in the very best style of fit and finish, and will guarantee all goods to be as represented. Fair play and a good article is the motto of the firm.

They have practical workmen at Hazlett & Kennedy's, No. 78 Smithfield street, and are ready to manufacture any article of jewelry to order.

A Home Attraction.

What is home without a sewing machine—not one of those unreliable, noisy, complicated pieces of mechanism which are too often foisted upon the innocent purchaser, but a machine like the American Button Hole and Overseaming Machine which will be found always in order for use, perfect in the simplicity of its mechanism and capable of being operated with but very few lessons by the merest tyro in sewing. All kinds of family sewing—fine and course may be done with facility on the American. Specimens of the work done upon it and illustrations of its ease of operation may be seen at the office of the agent Mr. James Espy, No. 178 Liberty street.

"What a Fool I Was."

It is an every day occurrence to hear sharp people candidly acknowledge "what a fool I was" for not buying this or that property that is now worth many times what it could have got it for." It won't be long till you can hear just such talk about North Homestead among the fellows that will be too "sharp" to buy on Monday next when this beautiful property will be sold for less than it will ever be again, and on the rare terms offered by the Homestead Bank. If you ever say so, reader, you must not grumble if some one says, "I told you so."

What's the use of sending east for a buggy or carriage and trusting to luck for a good article, when you can buy one at home, have the privilege of thoroughly testing it, save money, and encourage home manufacture, by purchasing the vehicle of Messrs. Workman & Davis. They now have an excellent assortment to select from at Nos. 167, 169 & 171 Penn avenue.

A Sensible Arrangement.

We noticed yesterday, while on a visit to North Homestead, that several "sample" lots have been fenced, so as to give visitors a correct idea of the size of the company's "regulation" lot.

A full line of ladies gold watches all styles, manufacture and price at Hazlett & Kennedy's, No. 78 Smithfield street. The prices are so reasonable that the most moderate income will find a time-keeper within reach.

THE glass house of Messrs. Ripley & Co., which was burned on Thursday, will be rebuilt immediately.

THE Mayor has been asked to suppress a peacock which is a nuisance to the residents on Penn avenue.

THE grand jury yesterday, found a true bill against "Bruiser Lynch," for the murder of Hadfield.

A LADY who was carrying a market basket along Carson street, East Birmingham, was caught between a street car and an iron wagon. She was knocked down and made a very narrow escape from being run over, but only received a few bruises.

YESTERDAY MORNING a policeman brought a prisoner to the lock-up, charging him with drunkenness. The Captain soon ascertained, however, that the policeman was about one degree drunker than his prisoner, and accordingly both were locked up together.

MISS D. I. DIX, for whom the Western Pennsylvania Hospital was named, is expected soon to visit that institution. The lady took a very prominent part in the founding of the asylum, and has always manifested a great interest in all such charitable institutions.

MR. GEORGE W. HUNTLEY, the advance agent of the Ravel-Martinetti troupe, paid us a visit yesterday. The gentleman is in this city for the purpose of arranging for the appearance of the troupe named, which will take place Monday next, at the Pittsburgh Opera House.

MAYOR CALLOW, has become convinced by the numerous accidents that happen in the neighborhood of the Federal street crossing, that an extra policeman is necessary at that point. He has accordingly written to Mr. John H. Hampton, Solicitor of the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne, & Chicago Rail Road, to place an extra policeman at the crossing.

MAYOR BLACKMORE received an appeal yesterday morning signed "Many Sleepers." The appeal represents that the signers reside on Penn avenue, and are kept awake by the discordant noises of a neighbor's peacock. They suggest that an appropriate name for the bird would be Macbeth, as it murders sleepers. They respectfully request that some measures be taken to restore quiet to that neighborhood.

THERE is a fine oil painting in possession of a gentleman of this city which to say the least has one strange peculiarity. It has been finished about one year and five months and is still fresh in one spot about two inches square. It is not a daubed painting. It is not varnished—as the freshness of the paint even to-day would lead one to attempt was made to varnish it. Perhaps some of our professional artists could explain.

THE annual session of the Grand Chapter of Temperance and Wisdom, advertised for June 20th, promises to be an interesting one. Heretofore the lady officers have been appointed by the male officers. The ones now in office are not satisfied with the privilege of voting but demand the right to be voted for. Other matters interesting and important to the Order will be brought forward. This Order (conspicuously known) is on the road to prosperity and we are assured they are increasing rapidly.

THE Cambria Freeman pays a compliment to the Pittsburgh Leader saying, that it was the only paper that had the enterprise to have a reporter at the Moore murder trial. Well, we confess the corn, but think it is quite sufficient to dispatch reporters to that benighted district to report executions, instead of filling our columns with the preliminaries—and that is a detail which generally occupies two or three men's time, for the death rate by the gallows is found up in that region, and yet not so heavy as it ought to be if Justice were better established there.

The Verdict.

The verdict in the Stacks murder trial is being severely critized by many, but it is the universal opinion of all who have tried the shaving saloon of Mr. Louis Green in the Central Hotel, that it is just the place to be shaved and have your hair cut, or if you want a good bath, you can be accommodated. Remember the Central Shaving Saloon is the place.

MUSIC CONTEST.

Commencement Exercises of the Female College—Music Contest for the McKee and Mellor Prizes.

One of the most interesting features in the commencement exercises of the Pittsburgh Female College took place in College Chapel last evening. The occasion was the instrumental and vocal contest for the McKee and Mellor prizes. The room was completely packed by the many friends of the institution, and many were unable to even get into the room.

Messrs. V. De Ham, Carl Grobe and C. C. Mellor had been appointed judges, but in the absence of Mr. Mellor, the delicate duties devolved upon the two remaining gentlemen.

The prizes to be contested for were two, the prize for excellence in vocal music being a very handsome volume of music from C. C. Mellor; for instrumental music, a beautiful gold medal, from Mr. McKee.

The following programme was observed:

Voluntary organ, Prof. Biessner.
Prayer.
Piano Solo, "Darmstadt"—Miss Ella Campbell.
Song, "La Zingarella"—Miss Sue Andrews.
Piano Solo, "Fete Hungarian"—Miss Jennie Finley.
Song, "When the quiet moon is beaming"—Miss Mary Unger.
Piano Solo, "Prayer of Moses"—Miss S. S. Darrah.
Song, "Modi e modi,"—Miss Lizzie Reinemsheider.
Piano Solo, fantasia on "La Traviata"—Miss Nettie Brown.
Song, "Magnetic Waltz"—Miss Jennie Farley.
Piano Solo, "Styrian Air"—Miss Lizzie Hersey.
Instrumental Duett—Misses Maggie Smith and Mary Unger.

At the close of the programme the task of the judges seemed to be indeed a difficult one. The performances were excellent throughout, and showed a thoroughness in cultivation which characterizes the college and its teachers. The vocal music was especially good, considering the disadvantage under which the singers labored in the room, which was entirely too crowded to permit of a fine effect.

The committee at the close announced that they had awarded the prize for vocal music to Miss Lizzie Reinemsheider, and the prize for instrumental music to Miss S. S. Darrah. The decisions seemed to give entire satisfaction, and the two successful competitors received the hearty congratulations of their friends.

Before the audience retired Miss Brewster sang by special request, "Home, Sweet Home" and the "Last Rose of Summer." She was received with loud applause and the audience dispersed highly delighted with the entertainment.

Bottles Full of Beauty.—Ladies, if you would have beauty by the bottle-full, all you have to do is to purchase HAGAN'S MAGNOLIA BALM. Their peculiar manufacture of the compound not only heightens natural charms, but renders even the plainest countenance exceedingly attractive. It recalls to the pallid cheek the rosy tinge of health, removes pimples, blotches, roughness, sallowness, and all blemishes, and imparts to the skin a most delicate fairness and softness. It smooths the furrows caused by time or care, and gives face, neck and arms the plump and engaging appearance of youthful beauty. All this is accomplished by the ever-simple means, viz: by gently and naturally stimulating the circulation in the capillary blood vessels. Besides being the most effectual aid to beauty known to modern science.

Grant and Wilson was in the mouths of all our male citizens last week many predicting that they would sweep the country this coming fall on the principles that would put at rest further controversy, whether the war was a failure or not; but the many women who talked about the superiority of Mardorf & Co.'s brooms over all others for sweeping your house, greatly exceeded the Grant and Wilson crowd. It is the universal opinion of all good housekeepers, that these brooms will last twice as long, and do much better work than any others made. Ask your Grocer for them, and take none other. Remember Mardorf & Co.'s Broom is what you want.

HOME ENTERPRISE.

Organization of a Powerful Insurance Company—Capital $250,000, with Power to increase to $500,000.

Yesterday the stockholders of the lately chartered Armenia Insurance Company, which starts with a paid up capital stock of a quarter of a million of dollars, with privilege to increase to double the amount, met together at the office of Swearingen & McCandless, for the purpose of effecting an organization. The utmost good feeling prevailed, and the following well known and substantial business gentlemen were elected unanimously to conduct the business of the Company: S. S. D. Thompson, Esq., Allegheny; Secretary, T. Brent Swearingen, Esq. Board of Directors—Alexander Patterson, John D. Scully, Wm. P. Logan, Jacob H. Walter, Jacob Copp, Charles Zug, Hugh McNeill, A. Weise, John Heath, C. L. Straub, Henry Warner, John H. McCreary, Isaac Stewart, James Laughlin, Jr., R. S. Waring, Joseph Phillips, Robert H. Dalzell, Joseph M. Gazzam, John A. Myler.

It will be observed from the foregoing names that this company starts under the most brilliant auspices, and promises to prove one of the richest, most prosperous and successful in the country. It will have agencies established in all the prominent cities and towns in the country, and will thus bring a large amount of capital to our city to be circulated among the capitalists and tradesmen. The advantage of such a local institution will be fully appreciated when it is asserted that over a quarter of million of dollars is directed abroad in the way of insurance annually by this city to foreign companies in no way more worthy than what our home enterprise promises to be. We wish the company much success. At its head as President and Secretary stand two of our most experienced and energetic insurance men who thoroughly know their business, and whose reputation for honor and honesty cannot be impeached. Let our communities award a generous and hearty support to the new company.
